Tangerine Software was honoured to receive the 2016 Development Partner of the Year Award at this year's Sage Africa Summit, held in Johannesburg from March 7 to 9. This prestigious award is given in recognition to the Sage OEM solution that generates the most sales revenue. Tangerine won the award for the 3rd consecutive year for its Nectari Business Intelligence product, distributed globally by Sage and partners under the OEM brand name, Sage Enterprise Intelligence ("SEI").
