INNOVATIVE, COMPREHENSIVE AND USER-FRIENDLY

Nectari is a Business Intelligence solution designed to provide business software users an easy approach to analyzing and reporting on enterprise data, while increasing productivity and improving collaboration.

The Web, Mobile and Excel user interfaces include modern, intuitive features that facilitate access to critical, real-time information required to make well-informed, timely business decisions.

SEAMLESS INTEGRATION

Thanks to excellent collaboration from Acumatica, Tangerine's Nectari product team developed a seamless integration between the two solutions, as well as a number of predefined, out-of-the box dashboards, analysis and report templates. "Our consultants were very impressed by how modern and rich in function the Acumatica software is, including its underlying technology that is so easy to work with", states Guy Girouard, Nectari Product Manager. "Everyone we worked with were so welcoming and helpful throughout the development certification process. I believe our Nectari for Acumatica offering will be of significant benefit to the Acumatica ecosystem starting, most importantly, with its customers", says Guy.
